

MADHYA PRADESH BHOJ (OPEN) UNIVERSITY

Ordinance No. 57

DIPLOMA IN AIR FARE & TICKETING

OBJECTIVE : It is a job oriented course. The programme aims at generating professionals for managing travel agencies particularly in international ticketing.

The main objectives are :

- a) To develop professionals having skills required for handling domestic and international tickets.
- b) Planning, developing, designing and coordinating international ticketing.
- c) To develop skill for booking the international tickets for tourists and corporate clients.
- d) To apply IATA fare construction principles and complete appropriate tickets and other documents for all types of international journeys.

ELIGIBILITY : The candidate should possess a Bachelor's Degree (10+2) in any discipline from any recognized university/institutions.

DURATION : This course shall be of One year duration.

COURSE CONTENT

Course I	:	Travel Fundamentals
Course II	:	Travel Geography
Course III	:	Airfare Calculation
Course IV	:	Viva-voce/Practicals

CONTACT CLASSES : One contact session of 15 days per year.

EXAM STRUCTURE : The examination would involve internal as well as external assessment. Internal assessment is of 30% and the term end assessment would be of 70% i.e. an aggregate of 100 marks for each paper.

Ist Division	:	60% and above.
IInd Division	:	45% and above
Pass marks	:	33% and above